Atlanta Pet Fair & Conference 2017

Georgia International Convention Center
March 9-12, 2017

Rules & Regulations for Our 4 Legged Friends

While we are here to celebrate our 4 legged friends, please remember to respect our show, the Convention Center, and the people around us by keeping the following in mind:

- Dogs should only be on convention center property if they are being used for competitions, in-booth demos, or by a speaker for demonstrations.
- Providers of dogs for your booth demos, lectures or competitions must be registered and wearing their badge for admittance on to Trade Show Floor.
- Dogs may not be walked around the convention center for any purpose other than to be taken to potty, back to the holding room, booth, to a contest, or demo.
- The potty area for dogs is out the front entrance and in the grass across the driveway in front of the Convention Center. Be sure to clean up after your dog!!!

Pet Friendly Hotel - Atlanta Hilton Airport

- Each sleeping room at the Hilton Atlanta Airport Hotel will allow up to 5 dogs per room
- A crate is required for each dog.
- Guests must bring plastic to go under crates and baggies and other sanitation supplies required to take care of dogs.
